

EAGLE LAKE HOUSE

ON EAGLE LAKE

GEORGE A. HOUGHTALING, Prop.

Eagle Lake P. O., N. Y., Feb the 4 1914

at Malin

Dear Mr. Luthy i received your best night i have been sick with the hart army all winter and just got round so i begin to feel like my self so have good sling and good ice i have got my ice so it is 17 inches thick so inches clear see the rest is snow ice he is gants to get your in he want to get flammings to get your wood he now asking me Mr nuton i hear he that you told the man from albarigt at came up and talked to you a bout the dam that the dam were un safe and he told nuton so and he told nuton to do it he was a minto with the dam the timber was no good in the dam so it was even fact and

EAGLE LAKE HOUSE

ON EAGLE LAKE

GEORGE A. HOUGHTALING, PROP.

2

Eagle Lake P. O., N. Y., 191

G. A. Houghtaling

The people at his bar you use to blame for killing him. The water in the lake belongs to the state and the land under the water belongs to those that bought the land no man can control the water in such a large lake belongs to the state of New York. I think that justice will fix it all right in the spring if I do not get him mad alson knows more about it than any one else as a lawyer and wood have more influence at Albany could build a log dam for 25 or 30 Dollars that would 50 years it will give the logs for the Dam it looks that they State road the Build a road further up north best wishes to you and wife