Hello All

I received an image of the article, PRIDE offers guidance to residents needing to drill wells, linked here from a resident on EL last week- it is shared here if you did not get it directly.

use this link and look for circled item, as shown in the second image below, on that page.

Last the contractor has started the installation of the piles for the replacement causeway bridge- should you wish to watch, see the camera link above

Best wishes to all for a Safe and Happy New Year.
