

timesunion <https://www.timesunion.com/local/article/Views-sought-on-Adirondack-tract-13380551.php>

Views sought on Adirondack tract

(Department of Environmental Conservation)

North Hudson

A meeting Tuesday night will help determine the fate of more than 45,000 acres of Adirondack land.

Recommended Video

The state Department of Environmental Conservation is looking for opinions about the Hammond Pond Wild Forest. Some of the 50 parcels inside the tract are located between the Northway and Route 9, and around the communities of Keene and Keene Valley.

and trail recreation improvements, equestrian trails that would complement o finish the 4,600-mile North Country National Scenic Trail. Tent sites, cus.

wholly revised to protect the unit's spectacular natural resources and ose Mountain Pond. Larger peaks include Bloody and Baxter mountains. It

The meeting starts at 6 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 13, at North Hudson Town Hall, 3024 U.S. Route 9, about a mile from Northway Exit 29.

Public comments will be accepted until Dec. 7 directly to Forester Corrie Magee by mail or email: NYSDEC, 232 Golf Course Road, Warrensburg, NY 12885 or R5.ump@dec.ny.gov.

X

Advertising Privacy Notice California Privacy Rights

Interest Based Ads Terms of Use Contact Us

Voorheesville woman accused of helping fugitive

Times Union

'Absolute miracle:' Rescuers find missing California sisters

Times Union

9 Reasons This Electric Toothbrush is Worth All The Hype

quip | Sponsored

Transfer Your Debt And Pay No Interest Until 2020

CompareCards By LendingTree | Sponsored

"Eargo Neo is a hearing aid you might actually want to wear" - Eng

Eargo Neo | Sponsored

Ollie's Bargain Outlet to open second area store

Times Union

Colonie man drove drunk on Thruway, police say

Times Union

World's First Surviving Octuplets Are All Grown Up. Look At Them 9 Years

DirectExpose | Sponsored

Lady Gaga's Engagement Ring Style

Brilliant Earth | Sponsored

Former NBA Star Found Playing In China

TieBreaker | Sponsored

State Police: Downstate cop sold 'ghost' guns to motorcycle gang